Ann K. Levine Honored with Prestigious 2009 ADL Ginsberg Leadership Award

Law School Expert founder recognized by the nation's premier civil rights agency for her outstanding leadership

SANTA BARBARA, CA — Ann K. Levine, Esq., founder of Law School Expert, has been honored by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) with the prestigious Daniel R. Ginsberg Leadership Award.

The award was established in 1995 by the Ginsberg family to honor leaders who have shown an outstanding commitment to the policies and activities of the ADL. The selection committee is recognizing Levine for her distinguished dedication and leadership in furthering the goals of the Anti-Defamation League.

Levine is currently the Chair of the Santa Barbara Tri-Counties Anti-Defamation League Regional Board. She has served on the ADL Tri-Counties Regional Board since 2005. She is also the recipient of the Harter-Myerson ADL Leadership Award and has served as Chair of the regional Civil Rights Committee.

Author of The Law School Admission Game: Play Like an Expert, Levine is a prominent law school admission consultant who has helped 1,000+ applicants nationwide achieve their admission goals since founding Law School Expert in 2004.

“I am so honored to be selected by the Anti-Defamation League because the volunteer work I do really reflects both my personal and professional values,” said Levine. “As a law school admission consultant, I am lucky to work with people from many different backgrounds who I think represent some of the nation’s most promising and ambitious individuals. I know there are still many challenges facing the human race, and I am proud to be a part of the ADL’s work in securing justice and fair treatment for all citizens.”

Levine will receive the award at the ADL’s National Leadership Conference and in Washington, DC, on April 20, 2009.
